

CAREER TECHNICAL PLANNING DISTRICT HIGHLIGHTS

- Completed Year XXV of Career Technical Planning District Plan, developed in conjunction with Carl Perkins Legislative requirements.
- Met requirements for Compact (CTPD) to be in compliance with Administrative Rules.
- Developed the CCIP to coincide with the Perkins 5-Year Plan.
- Discussed possible connections with Inno Source and the Engineering and Manufacturing Initiatives.
- Asked to have additional involvement with the Manufacturing Network of Summit County.
- Discussed potential new college tech prep initiatives with Hudson personnel.
- Participated with testing of beta site for population of career-technical education information – through CONEXUS in Summit County.
- Met with representatives from Woodridge and Americhem to discuss potential involvement with Woodridge students and the Compact manufacturing and engineering initiatives.
- Hosted a professional conversation in Tallmadge with three members of the State Board of Education and the Compact Executive Committee on February 10, 2016, to discuss Compact and district educational challenges, successes and highlights of the Career Technical Planning District (Six District Educational Compact).
- Invited to join a meeting with Hudson personnel and students as they hosted Richard Ross, Superintendent of Public Instruction on October 8th; Compact Career Technical Education was well represented with Hudson student speaking to its value and the connection to academic integration.
- Invited to tour the new facility at Lorain County Community College for new program called TRAIN Ohio; related to new associate degree program in MEMS and microelectronics according to Johnny Vanderford, professor of program.
- Received financial support from the East Central Regional Tech Prep Center for instructors and administrators to attend related professional development opportunities.
- Supported the continued work of the Pathway Project, Year XVII.
- Updated the online student application system for Compact College Tech Prep initiatives through Applitrack company; impacted efficient changes to screening and placement process.
- Supported National Career and Technical Education Month in February.
- Implemented the Career Pathway System for students with disabilities, Year XII focus areas.
- Supported three professional development workshops for Family and Consumer Sciences teachers.
- Facilitated College Credit Plus agreements for Compact districts with The University of Akron, Kent State and Stark State universities.
- Implemented some procedures and recommendations for Project SEARCH and hosted an open house and orientation.

- Developed guidelines to share with Principals' Committee regarding student removal process from a career-technical education initiative.

COMPACT MARKETING PLAN

- Implemented Year XXIII of the Marketing Plan for Compact College Tech Prep Initiatives.
- Updated the Compact website, www.sixdistrict.com.
- Provided a three-time “Compact Career Directions” for high school principal letters to parents.
- Revised the chart for the articulation agreements in the Career Catalog.
- Provided newsletters for Athletic Health Care and Fitness, Business/Marketing Pathway in Tallmadge, Computer-Aided Design and Engineering Technology, Early Childhood Professions, Engineering Academy, Forestry and Landscape Management, Health Careers Technologies.
- Organized/implemented an October training session at Davey Tree Expert Co. for Compact College Tech Prep student ambassadors with Leslie Ungar, President, Electric Impulse.
- Produced three color issues of Compact Points newsletter.
- Provided materials for six parent nights throughout the year.
- Continued marketing initiatives for College Tech Prep Career Awareness; held “Meet the Students, Parents and Teacher” receptions for College Tech Prep initiatives in April and May.
- Highlighted numerous College Tech Prep initiative events with photographs and press coverage.
- Developed updated marketing materials for Job Training Coordination Services.
- Focused on the “Value” of the Compact Career Technical Education offerings as related to enrollment.
- Assisted with changes to Compact website.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

- Took the high school counselors to SGS Tool for a presentation about the new world of manufacturing careers.
- Hosted a professional development session for members of the District Teams (COMPACT COMPASS: THE FOUR E’S INITIATIVE) on career development as connected to service learning/project based learning.
- Sponsored the ACE Academy in June for students to learn more about the careers in aeronautics.
- Worked with the Compact Task Force on Career Advising for the review of the law and requirements for policy statements, planning, grades 6-12 and devising a Student SuccessPlan for at-risk students.
- Sponsored three people to attend the regional ODE/CTE Career Advising meeting in Mayfield in May.
- Continued “discussion” about new middle school career exploration courses per HB 59.
- Highlighted Career offerings at various high school career fairs.

COLLEGE TECH PREP INITIATIVES

- Involved Business and Administrative students at Woodridge Middle School with participation in the Selling Bee through the Young Entrepreneur Institute; four students were recognized in the finalist category with one student winning for her outstanding video pitch she made in April. Congratulations to Isabella Chirakos and instructor Emily Knight.
- Seized the opportunity with the invitation from the Cuyahoga Falls Mayor’s office to participate in the design of a new logo for the city; involved the Interactive Media/Digital Design and other art students as they worked with Rick Krochka, president of the well known TRIAD firm to work on three designs for the Cuyahoga Falls residents to vote on and be used on most marketing and communication materials.
- Connected with Gary Miller at SGS Tool about their internship opportunities for our manufacturing students and the invitation for the school counselors to visit their new facility.
- Hosted a local GOJO employee to work with the International Business Academy students at Stow Munroe Falls High School as he is a native of Mali where these Academy students are helping to build a “Stow School”.
- Collaborated with The Ohio Association for Career Technical Education to host a Success Series for Engineering at Roosevelt and Stow Munroe Falls High School focusing on the unique Engineering Academy. Approximately 15 professionals attended from around the state on November 4.
- Sponsored a “Family Fun Day” in Cuyahoga Falls on May 22 with the Criminal Justice students and instructor, Shane Parker, to highlight families learning about safety and interacting with local police and fire department personnel.
- Congratulated the Early Childhood Professions Initiative on accomplishing a 100% passage rate of the CDA credential, a requirement for employment.
- Involved two college students from The University of Akron, Department of Biomedical Engineering to mentor the students in the Biomedical Engineering Academy located at Woodridge.
- Learned about updates in the Washkewicz College of Engineering at Cleveland State University from two college representatives – with the counselors’ committee on November 13.
- Held meeting with representatives of the Mustard Seed Markets and the Culinary Arts instructors on May 3rd to discuss various options of working together – for displays, work with positive food choices, demonstrations and potential employment opportunities.
- Congratulated Terry Slattery on his recognition as the HPAC instructor of the year; the continuation of a five year collaboration with Slippery University and the 21 outstanding capstone projects the Athletic Health Care and Fitness level 11 students presented in May.
- Established CTAG credit for Initiatives at Roosevelt High School: CADET, three hours; Engineering Academy, three hours; Teaching Professions, three hours; Construction Technologies, three hours; Health Careers Technologies, six hours; Athletic Health Care and Fitness, six hours.
- Continued collaboration with The University of Akron, College of Applied Science and Technology for the redesign of Computer-Aided Design to the Computer Aided Design and Engineering Technologies initiative.
- Visited Cleveland State University, Audio Technica and NMG–Aerospace with the Engineering Academy.
- Developed additional internships for Compact students at Smithers Oasis with the assistance with Amy McDougal and Jim Stull (OASIS).
- Offered Joshua’s Holiday Buffet and Spring Lunch with daytime and evening seatings—Culinary Arts.
- Recognized Culinary Arts students for earning the ProStart Certification.
- Recognized students who won state and national competitive events.
- Participated in the Summit County Transition Expo in April.
- Highlighted the numerous projects of the fifth year for the International Business Academy College Tech Prep Initiative at Stow Munroe Falls High School.
- Participated in the Annual Bridge Building Competition at The University of Akron with the Engineering Academy.
- Advertised student/parent visit to Washkewicz College of Engineering in April.
- Expanded partnership with Cleveland State University, Washkewicz College of Engineering, for the Engineering Academy.
- Received support from East Central Regional Center – Ohio College Tech Prep for several teachers to participate in professional development.
- Continued collaborative programs with Kent State University and The University of Akron.
- Sponsored “Celebrate Success” reception in May for new Engineering Academy students and parents.
- Hosted “Conversation with Parents” for all College Tech Prep Initiatives at Roosevelt in February.
- Congratulated Cuyahoga Falls and Roosevelt cosmetology students on their 100/96 percent passage of the state exam.
- Supported the Tallmadge Business Program students and their instructor Kim Brendel with their Job and Career Fair.
- Supported Great Lakes Theatre Festival Troupe for Shakespeare Festival for College Tech Prep students at Roosevelt.

CAREER PASSPORTS

- Distributed Passports to 375 seniors.
- Provided a yearlong timeline for Passport activities.
- Purchased Passport folders and supporting marketing materials for all districts.

COMPACT CARE COMMITTEE AND SATURDAY FAMILY WORKSHOP

- Presented the C.A.R.E. Award of Appreciation to Robby's Voice.
- Recognized nine district/community members with "District Awards."
- Completed evaluation report for Saturday Family Workshop.
- Updated all SFW materials and identified new roles for facilitators.
- Continued the Saturday Family Workshop Program, an intensive family-based program offered to high school and middle school students and their parents or legal guardians as a required alternative consequence of a school policy violation or a Juvenile Justice referral.
- Monitored and evaluated all aspects of Saturday Family Workshop Program for Compact high school and middle school students, serving nearly 100 families.

MATH AND SCIENCE PROJECTS (STEM)

- Supported Diane Burbick Conference on Math and Science for Middle School Girls for over 200 students/parents, with Lt. Col. (Ret.) Maureen McFarland as keynote speaker.
- Sponsored summer OGT Preparation Program and offered OGT tests.
- Sponsored various marketing aspects of the Engineering Academy.
- Continued the HPAC (Health Professions Affinity Community) at Roosevelt and Woodridge High Schools.
- Supported students participating in HPAC Scholars Day, April 24.
- Continued a three-part workshop—Professional Conversation and Collaboration for Mathematics Instruction—June 10 and August 8.

READING AND WRITING FESTIVAL

- Sponsored the 29th Annual Reading and Writing Festival at Kent State University.
- Designed for seventh and eighth graders and attended by over 260 students who interacted with guest author Margaret Peterson Haddix as well as guest presenters of 18 small group activities.
- Offered in conjunction with the Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library.

OHIO GRADUATION TEST PREPARATION PROGRAM

- Developed plan for the summer OGT intervention program.
- Created all marketing and informational materials.
- Offered program at Stanton Middle School to students from all six districts and non-Compact districts.
- Scheduled testing for 29 students at Stanton Middle School.

MISCELLANEOUS

- Shared information about the 15th Annual River Clean-Up at Cascade Locks Park on October 3 with high school principals and the Compact Program Committee.
- Sponsored a regional public hearing for the Office of Workforce Transformation at Tallmadge High School on February 4.
- Provided a summer school professional development flyer to all districts about an ASM Camp.
- Held the Career Passport Program at Roosevelt High School.
- Advertised ACE in the Akron Beacon Journal Camp Guide and the Record Courier.
- Represented the Compact as a member of the Summa Western Reserve Community Business Leaders Council.
- Participated as a member of the East Central Region College Tech Prep Center.
- Served as the Legislative Chair of OCTA, District 4.
- Appointed as a member to the advisory committee for the Ohio ACTE Bryl Shoemaker Leadership Institute.
- Hosted Professional Development planning committee session in May and June to plan for 2016-17 workshop sessions.
- Continued the MOU with Project LEARN of Summit County for providing ESOL, ABLE, GED services.
- Participated in regional information sessions related to students with disabilities and career-technical program offerings.
- Hosted a Non-Perkins Site Visit with ODE consultant.
- Attended spring student/employer recognition events.
- Continued the framework design for the Pathway Project – Service Learning/Senior Project; College Tech Prep Redesign, Career Development/"Gifts and Fascinations."
- Coordinated courses/planning for Summer School 2016 with the summer school principals at Cuyahoga Falls, Hudson, Kent and Stow-Munroe Falls.
- Continued working with Special Education Committee and Kent State University on implementation of a Community Vocational Based Training Program.
- Cooperated with MRDD and Kent State University for community placement opportunities for students.
- Recognized College Tech Prep students who excelled in leadership and skill competitions and who received local scholarships.

Cosmetology • Roosevelt