

A.C.E. Academy Aeronautics Career Education

Fly a plane, tour Cleveland's regional operations center, and try hands-on experiences in KSU's labs.

As part of a partnership with Kent State University's College of Aeronautics and Engineering, students will experience a broad range of activities, trips and speakers that will expose them to a wide variety of career opportunities in the field of aeronautics during this special week.

The A.C.E. Academy is designed for 25 students entering grades 10, 11 and 12 in the fall of 2018.

A.C.E. Academy is directed by Dr. Maureen McFarland, Senior Director Aeronautics Program, Kent State University. Licensed teachers will also work with the students during the week.

A.C.E. Academy dates: June 11-15, 2018

Location: College of Aeronautics and Engineering at Kent State University

Time: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cost: $225 for Compact students from Cuyahoga Falls, Hudson, Kent, Stow-Munroe Falls, Tallmadge, Woodridge ; $275 for non-Compact students (includes speakers, instruction, bus transportation, visitations and t-shirt.)

Registration deadline: May 9, 2018 (Limited to 25 students.)

Required student/parent orientation meeting: May 16, 2018 at 7 p.m. at the College of Aeronautics and Engineering.

(Student and parent must attend to learn about the final details and sign important forms.)

Contact your high school counseling department office for a brochure or call the Compact Office at 330-655-2247. Register at www.kent.edu/cae/ACECamp.
