

Special Projects and Services • Six District Educational Compact • 1970-2023

- Compact Mathematics Committee, funding from Title II, 1985
 - Create state-wide Math Day in April
 - Newsletter, "Summing It Up"
 - Legislative Forums with State and Federal Legislators
 - Real-World Orientation Experiences
 - Mathematics Education Leadership
 - Dr. Leo Anglin, Kent State University - Consultant
- IDEA – Institute for Development of Education and Activities for high school principals, 1987 (currently 10 groups with facilitators)
 - Jim LaPlant, Steve Thompson - Consultants
- First Reading & Writing Festival, 1988
- Summer Internship for Science Teachers, 1989-1991
- Proficiency and then Ohio Graduation Test Preparation Summer Initiatives, 1990
- Horatio Alger Youth Seminar Site for Ohio, 1991
- Senator John Glenn Visit to Polymer Science and Testing Program at Stow-Munroe Falls High School, 1991-92
- Compact Math/Science Project for Professional Development, 1993
 - Dr. Leo Anglin, Kent State University; Dr. Johnny Hill, Miami University - Consultants
- Testimony at Federal Committee on Education and Labor Hearing for Dwight D. Eisenhower Mathematics and Science Education Act, 1993
- First Career Passports issued to 107 students, 1994
- Technology Work Experiences and Task Force with Kent State University, 1995
 - Dr. Dale Cook - Consultant
- School to Work Local Demonstration Grant of $50,000, 1995
- Summa – Compact Partnership established 1996
- VITAL Links, Summer Teacher Workshop, Integration of workplace skills into various content areas through visitations to manufacturing/other worksites; Project Based Learning, 1997
 - Dr. Sandy Auburn, Akron Area Development Board; Dr. Bena Kallick; Marian Leibowitz Associates - Consultants
- MIDAS Project, Math and Reading Information with Multiple Intelligences, 1997
 - Dr. Branton Sheerer - Consultant
- Diane Burbick Math and Science Conference for Middle School Girls, began in 1997
- Compact formed as Regional Council of Governments, 1997

- Work-Based Learning Project, 1997
 - White Coat Program at Summa
 - Cuyahoga Falls Teachers Summer Experience at Summa
- Pathway Project, 1997 to date
 - Service Learning / Senior Project
 - Self-Assessment Rubric
 - Compact Guiding Principles
 - Teaching & Learning Strategies Involving Community
 - Marian Leibowitz Associates, Jim May, Phyllis DeMark - Consultants
- Interactive Classroom Project with Cuyahoga Falls for Hands-on Instruction Methods, 1997
 - Don Botto - Consultant
- Adult Education Human Resources Development, 1999
 - Melissa Habowski - Coordinator
- Career Development Initiatives, 1999-2000
 - Service Learning
 - Gifts and Fascinations
 - Internal Job Description
- Summa Compact Partnership Recipient, Summit Education Initiative, "Celebrate the Starts Partners in Education Award", 1999-2000
- Family & Consumer Sciences Professional Development, 2000
 - Sandy Laurenson, Barbara Moore, Christy Hickman - Consultants

- "Work Ethic Tool Kit" Project, 2000
 - Dr. Sandy Auburn, Akron Regional Development Board; Marian Leibowitz Associates - Consultants
- Sciences Technologies Pathway ODE Grant at Stow-Munroe Falls High School, cluster of science courses with hands-on approach, 2000
 - Phyllis Demark - Consultant
- Connecting Assessment to Data and Classroom for CBI and Workforce Instructors, 2001
 - Dr. Sharon Kruse, University of Akron; Dr. Doug Clay, Cleveland State - Consultants
- Aviation Career Experience (ACE) created in conjunction with Kent State University, 2002
- Safe & Supportive Schools $140,000 grant from Ohio Department of Education for integrating "Everyday People Make A Difference" and "Celebrating Everyday Heroes," 2003-2004
 - Partnerships for Authentic Learning & Leadership - Consultants
- First Student Ambassador Training, 2003
 - Leslie Unger, Electric Impulse - Consultant
- "Advisory Committee" Professional Development with CBI/ Workforce Teachers, 2003
 - Barbara Moore - Consultant
- University of Akron Forum Series / Compact for Free Tickets as component of Linkages with The University of Akron, 2003
- Support Staff, 11 Professional Development Workshops, 2005
- Fenn College of Engineering, Cleveland State University becomes partner with Engineering Academy, 2006
- Project SEARCH opens at Summa Health, 2006
- Technology Work Experience (TWE) student opportunities to assist districts with technology needs; summer workshop offered for training, 2007
- $10,000 grant from Margaret Clark Morgan Foundation for new Arts/Communication program at Tallmadge High School, 2008
- Compact ABLE and Project Learn of Akron develop collaborative agreement for services, 2009
- Compass Awards were presented for outstanding contributions to the Compact, 2004; 2006; 2010; 2013
- Career-Technical Education Professional Development – Course of Study Revisions to include academic integration and technology platforms, 2010
 - Jeff Good, Karin Merrin Swope, Barbara Moore, Valerie Reidthaler, Jim Zwisler - Consultants
- $20,000 from the Margaret Clark Morgan Foundation for Project SEARCH, 2010
- Compact (CTPD) Report Card, EMIS, Perkins Data Analysis/ Professional Development, 2010
 - Dr. Sharon Enright - Consultant
- Joseph O'Sickey established "Joseph and Algesa O'Sickey Sketchbook Development Project" for art students, 2010
- Transformed CTE application system to online platform through Applitrack and oversaw the enrollment process with all districts, 2011
 - Nancy Fluke - Consultant
- Biomedical Engineering / Technology Academy – Summa Foundation awarded $150,000 to Woodridge High School for lab renovation / equipment purchase; Woodridge gift of $190,000, 2012
- WebXam Workshops for all Workforce Teachers, 2014
- First Middle School CTE programs opened, 2015
- $225,000 Ohio Department of Education grant for the Compact Compass: Four E's Initiative, 2015
 - 2015-16: Ellen Erlanger, Kathy Meyer, Emmy Beeson, Partnerships for Authentic Learning and Leadership - Consultants
 - 2017: Bryan Harvey, Dr. Rachel McMahan – Partnerships for Authentic Learning and Leadership; Mark Welfley - Consultants
- "Girls Geared for Engineering Camp" held in conjunction with Kent State University, 2016
- Compact Math Collaborative, Re-started 2016
 - Dr. Kim Yoak - Facilitator
- Partnership with ConxusNEO with their IT, Healthcare and Manufacturing Sector Initiatives, 2016
 - Sue Lacy - Executive Director
- $50,000 Ohio Department of Education Grant for Compact Compass Four E's Initiative, 2018
 - Ellen Erlanger, Kathy Meyer, Emmy Beeson – Partnerships for Authentic Learning and Leadership, Consultants
- Compact Plan for the Future convened to discuss future Career-Technical Education programs, 2018
 - Tom Speaks - Facilitator
- Initiated the second component of Saturday Family Workshop for Anger Management & Conflict Resolution, 2018
- NewsLit Camp, co-sponsored with Akron Beacon Journal and Greater Akron Chamber of Commerce, Site for Ohio, 2020
- Revamped Compact Website with 3D Photographs for each Career-Technical Education Program, 2020
- Students with Disabilities / CTE Program Future Opportunities Design Work, 2021
 - Joyce Brouman - Consultant